2,400 educators innovating

500 organizations partnering

100,000 families engaging

200 learning spaces reimagined

150 classrooms transformed

13 continents visited

25 awards & recognitions

20 citations & references

3 continents visited

$95M invested in members

12 years in the remaking
Since 2007, Remake Learning members have been working together to ignite more engaging, relevant, and equitable learning opportunities for young people navigating rapid social and technological changes.

500+ partner organizations across 30 counties in 3 states:
- 130 schools
- 83 libraries, museums, & centers
- 54 business partners

30 colleges & universities
24 funders
16 civic partners

200+ learning spaces reimagined into STEM labs, media/tech hubs, and makerspaces
150+ classrooms transformed into active and collaborative learning environments

2,400+ teachers from 139 school districts pursuing innovative professional development
34 district instructional innovation staff

Remake Learning Days has engaged more than 25,000 children, youth, and families in 250+ events each year since 2016
Now taking root in Chattanooga, Chicago, eastern Kentucky, North Carolina’s Triangle, and other regions across the country

25+ awards and recognitions
- HundrED 2020 Global Collection
- Obama Administration Champion of Change
- Tribeca Disruptive Innovation Award

Cited in 20+ books, reports, and whitepapers
- What School Could Be
- Big Change
- World Economic Forum

25+ national and global partners
- Common Sense Media
- Code.org
- Digital Promise
- KnowledgeWorks
- New America
- STEM Ecosystems

LEARN MORE AT
remakelearning.org

info@remakelearning.org
@remakelearning
/remakelearning
@remakelearning