is power,
understanding is being able to use
that power.*

TEACHING for UNDERSTANDING

EDUCATING FOR DEPTH, FLEXIBILITY, AND THE UNKNOWN

6-Session Collaborative Online Course

EXPLORE

Watch, read and reflect on the Teaching for Understanding framework and how to use it to help students develop transferable knowledge and skills that they can apply to new situations they encounter.

PRACTICE

Apply new ideas in your environment, share how it went with your team, receive feedback, and revise.

COLLABORATE

Learning is social. You will meet with your team, discuss ideas, reflect together, and dialogue with other teams in the course.

FEEDBACK & COACHING

Receive collective feedback and support from coaches and facilitators. (Coaching is with groups, not individuals.)

Relevant to Teachers, Teacher Leaders, School Leaders, Museum Educators, Homeschoolers and those working in informal learning environments. All subjects. Pre-K to Adult Learning.

$525 per person for teams of 3-6

$599 per person for individuals (organized into teams)
